

Restoration of Hope

Rules and Regulations

Our Time With God:

Every resident is required to attend classes and, we will attend church functions as a unit.

Bible study classes: Monday and Thursday Evenings from 7 until 9:30 we will come together as a group and have worship time followed by a unit study which will include; reading the word, studying from a bible based program which will deepen our understanding and desire for the Word of God.

On Wednesday evenings we will attend church as a group. We will attend different churches and reach out to others.

We will attend Celebrate Recovery on Tuesday and Friday nights. This program helps us to establish who we are and the purpose we are seeking; Regaining our walk with Jesus Christ. We, at times may even be allowed to share our testimonies and where God is taking us.

Saturday is a day to enjoy and come together as Brothers in Christ. We will watch ballgames, approved Faith Based Movies, from time to time, etc. We may even have events to attend that will allow us to make contacts and hopefully bring others to our program.

Sunday is God's day. Together we will attend a variety of churches, this will allow others to see our program and our purpose. We will attend Sunday night church as well. This is not an option.

DAY WORK:

We will have jobs that we work at together: landscaping, lawncare, handyman work, etc. We will work in groups, no one will work alone. We must be held accountable for our actions. You are not required to go out and seek work we will have opportunities to work together as a group. Only designated drivers will be allowed to drive vehicles.

HOUSE RULES:

Each resident is required to take part in day to day chores. There will be a list of what each person is responsible for the week. On an individual basis you will: keep your room clean and keep things off the floors. Each resident will be assigned a certain work duty. If these duties are not performed there will be a meeting and further measures will be taken. We must all work together to keep our facility neat and clean. ON SATURDAY MORNING we will have mandatory house clean up. We will set aside 2 to 3 hours to do some deep cleaning of rooms and outside areas. This will be done as a group, each person assigned to a certain work detail. Personal hygiene is a must also. Daily baths are required. Everyone is required to be dressed from 6 a.m. until 9:30 p.m. The director will determine room assignments and weekly duties.

STARTING OUR DAY WITH GOD FIRST:

We will start our day at 5:30 a.m. We will get up at 5:30, have breakfast from 6 to 7 a.m. From 7 til 8 we will have devotional time. (These times are subject to change.)

Lunch will be from 11:30 til 12:30 for those who are at the facility. If you are out working, we will provide you a lunch. Dinner will be served according to the schedule of the evening. Resident are not allowed to have food in their room.

All residents are required to have lights out by 10:00 p.m. Sundays through Thursdays and lights out by 11:00 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays.

VISITATION:

Residents will be allowed to have visitors after 90 days in the program. Visitations are scheduled on Saturdays between the hours of 11:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Visitation can only be with immediate family (mother, father, brother, sister, children). Visitors are not allowed in residents' rooms. If married, we must see your marriage certificate. Any female visitors must have birth certificate as proof of family.

DRUG/ALCOHOL USE:

There is absolutely no use of alcohol or drugs in this program. If you are caught or it is reported to the director a conference will be held with the director and board members for a formal determination of removal. Drug testing will be random and if you test positive you will be dismissed from the program.

GENERAL INFORMATION:

There is no profanity in this program. You will have consequences to your actions and if regulations are not followed you can/will be removed. Any unsettled disagreements between residents may be addressed through discussion with the Director.

FYI:

You are a special person because Jesus died for you. You have a purpose and we are here to build each other up and walk the paths that God has chosen for us. Just always remember- HONESTY is a must. You may falter but you are expected to own up to your mistake and bring it to the director.
